

UNIVERSITY of DUBUQUE

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

PREPARING FAITHFUL LEADERS

Spring 2024

Christian Leadership and Administration

a continuing education opportunity

January 16 – March 11, 2024

This course will help you build the leadership skills and confidence required to lead today's church. Pastors, Ruling Elders, and informal church leaders will discover benefits from this offering.

Benefits

- Identify your leadership style
- Understand obstacles to change
- Team building and administration
- Learn to implement change

This is an eight-week online course beginning on January 16, 2024. It will consist of a weekly reading, lecture and an online course discussion forum where participants will wrestle with group questions. The course is asynchronous, which means weekly lectures may be viewed and work completed anytime on your own schedule each week.

Faculty: Rev. Dr. Loren Shellabarger, Adjunct Professor University of Dubuque Theological Seminary
DMin, MDiv University of Dubuque Theological Seminary

Dr. Shellabarger has long considered himself a student of leadership through lessons learned during his life in the military, the corporate world and the church. These thoughtful lessons learned, acquired over years of training, research and experience, provide the foundation for this course.

Cost: $390 (plus book costs)

Online learning needs: Internet connection & device

Student Expectations:

One-hour weekly lecture (viewed anytime during the week)

Readings (approximately 600 pages total)

Weekly online forum discussion participation

REGISTER TODAY!

deregistration@dbq.edu

(563) 589-3261

563.589.3261

DERegistration@dbq.edu

udts.dbq.edu